VILLA THROWING NET ON TORREON

Rebel Army Closely Investing City and Mounting Artillery.

DESERT HARDSHIPS.

Dispatch Announces That Urbina Has Routed Federals and Captured Lama,, Near Torreon Besieged City.

Constitutionalist Headquarters, Yermo, Durango, Mex., March 21.—Gen. Villa and his army of 12,000 rebels are investing the Federal stronghold of Torreon.

The khaki-clad columns occupied the environs of the city without opposition, and yesterday was spent in dragging the field pieces into position to shell the Federal trenches, which have been dug at every point where the Federal commander, General Refugio Velasco, expects attack. The Federal army is estimated at 9,000 men. South and southwest of the city, their position is regarded as almost impregnable by reason of the mountains, through which only three passes run, and these have been rendered almost impassable by fortifications and barbed wire entanglements. In other directions the city is reached through the desert and high hills.

Villa's recent progress has been slow, because it was necessary to repair the railroad tracks and bridges; but the road is now open from Yermo, where the troops have been mobilizing, to Mapimi and Bermelillio, which are only a few miles north of Torreon and are virtually suburbs of that city.

At these two cities, after suffering long hours in the freight cars, where they were stuffed like figs in a box, with but a scant supply of water, the troops detained and formed in columns in the intense heat. There was little loss of time in plunging into the desert, some mounted and others on foot Great clouds of desert dust marked their progress about hummocks of cacti crowned sand, and through dry water courses. Great tank wagons laden with the water supply which has been Villa's greatest problem, rumbled in the trail, the wheels at times almost hub deep in the sand. In these emergencies branches of the tough mosquite bush and soap were matted under the wheels, sturdy peons put hands to the spokes; streams of profanity were addressed to mules in a language said to be in this respect the most adequate in the world, and the column would proceed.

The lips of the few foreigners in the army were cracked and swollen from the heat and alkali dust, but the Mexicans, trained to such conditions, covered their mouths with folds of their blankets and fared better. All eyes were bloodshot. In this way amid the suffering which the harshest waste of arid land in Mexico can furnish, the outskirts of Torreon were reached

El Paso, Tex, March. 21.—A brief dispatch received early from an American correspondent with Gen. Francisco Villa's constitutionalist army at Torreon, stated that the advance guard of the rebel forces were at Yermo, sixty-five miles north of Torreon. Another dispatch was received by the constitutionalist information bureau in Juarez at midnight which is supposed to give detailed information regarding the movements of Villa's men. The Juarez officials,however, would make no details public, merely saying:

"Advices from Yermo are to the effect that the constitutionalists are in possession of all the points abandoned by the federals."

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.

Postponement of Meeting of Literary Society Until March 28th—Formation of Second Team.

The next regular meeting of the A. H. S. Literary Society, which was to be held tonight in the school building, has been postponed until March 28th. The subject for debate at the meeting is "Resolved, that it should be the policy of the United States to maintain one of the three largest navies of the world." Miss Dolly Callahan and Ashby Bladen will uphold the affirmative, while the negative stand will be taken by Albert Bryan and Elwin Brawner. A good debate is expected on this subject, as it is one that has been a topic of public concern during the past few years. All members of the Literary Society, it is hoped, will be present to hear the debaters argue on this vital question. Visitors are now allowed in the Society, and are invited to come to any of the meetings.

A drill in declaiming will be held among the girls, all the girls having to recite the Mercy Speech from the Merchant of Venice. Because of the great difference between boys and girls declamations, the drills in this line were held at separate times.

A second baseball team has been formed by the boys of the High School, with Mr. Prettyman as coach. A meeting of the candidates was held Monday afternoon and John Curtin, of the first year, was elected manager, but no captain has as yet been elected. A good number showed up at the first practice on Wednesday. The manager is at work on the schedule, which begin about the first of April. The team will challenge some of the second high school teams and grammar school teams in Washington, and will also play a series of games with the Washington school team, which is being formed by the boys down at the grammar school.

Rehearsals on the two plays to be given by the High School Literary Society are held every afternoon after school, and work on the plays is progressing rapidly. Players in "Every Student" rehearse on Wednesday and Thursday afternoons and on Friday, and rehearsals on "The Princess" take place other afternoons of the week and on Saturday mornings at 10 p. m. The date of the production has been changed from March 27 to an early date in April. The cast, music, and scienic effects will all come from High School talent.

The play "Everystudent," which is an allegory pointing out a moral lesson, runs something on this order. Everystudent has a great deal of trouble with the ghost Examination because he relies on Bluff. Result, in the guise of Failure, and hidden Truth haunt him. At last he decides to try Study. He does so and Wisdom comes to aid him, showing Him Ambition, Perseverance and Good Sense. Then Result appears to him as Success, instead of Failure. Everystudent tries to change his Classmate, but without effect. A messenger from the World calls Every Student, nad his Alma Mater proudly knights him. At the last minute Classmate discovers Truth, sends away Bluff, and is also knighted. Good Times enters and closes the play by promising to bring his two chief aids, Happiness and Love, to join the company.

The second year regrets to note the sickness and absence of several of its pupils and hopes that the persons sick now will soon be well enough to attend school.

The basketball game Wednesday between the girls' team A. H. S. and the Central H. S. girls' team, was a hard fought game throughout. It was very evenly matched, and both teams ran a close race up to the finish, when Central just nosed out by only a few points. The score was 23 to 20.

CALMETTE BURIAL RESULT IN RIOTS

MANY ARE INJURED.

Boulevard Converted Into Battlefield. Slayer of Editor Calmette Living Luxuriously in Prison.

Paris, France, March 21. — The pent-up feelings of the Paris masses, which have been growing in intensity since the Figaro tragedy, exploded yesterday afternoon immediately after the interment of the body of Gaston Calmette, when a fierce riot broke out near the cemetery. During this riot a large number of persons were injured.

Out of respect for the Calmette family, and obeying the behest of political leaders, 500,000 people either lined the route of the funeral procession or followed the hearse, and all of these conducted themselves in an orderly manner A sympathetic silence was maintained while the body was being borne to the grave. As soon as the interment was complete, however, hundreds of young royalists led by Maurice Pujo, editor of Action Francaise and their chief organizer, passed through the densely thronged streets yell " A bass Caillaux."

The mob was proceeding along the Boulevard Clichy when a stentorian voice broke out from the hostile crowd shouting " Vive Caillaux'.'

In the twinkling of an eye the boulevard was then converted into a battle field. The royalists threw themselves upon the section of the crowd from whence the cheer had come, and proceeded to fight their way through the crowd by means of loaded sticks. The riot wa sassuming an ugly aspect when a strong force of police rushed up and tried to disperse the mob.

That, however, was impossible, owing to the fact that the vast mass of people hemmed in the principal rioters. During the turmoil whic hensued, scores of revolver shots rang o These were the signal for the police to draw their sabres, which were used flat. The mere onlookers immediately rushed for cover, which allowed the police to charge the demonstrators. A fierce riot then ensued, during which many shop fronts were wrecked, cafe tables were smashed and thrown about and a number of persons injured.

The funeral of Gaston Calmette, victim of Mmme. Caillaux, took place yesterday in the Church of St. Francois de Sales, in the northwestern district of Paris, and within a block of the residence of his assassin.

Hours before the procession moved vast crowds filled the streets.

In France, as in America, prisons can be converted into palaces for wealthy wrong-doers. Mme. Caillaux is leading a prison life deprived of no comforts, while with her, in the same great prison, are many hundreds of women undergoing the harsh treatment for which St. Lazare prison is notorious—some of them for offenses which, compared with the crime of the ex-minister's wife, are insignificant.

The only thing lacking in the luxurious existence Mme. Caillaux is leading is floral decorations, the prison governor having refused to allow the delivery of hundreds of bouquets sent to the distinguished prisoner. Her apartment, cell No. 12, which was formerly occupied by Mme. Humbert and Mme. Steinheil, is now a tastefully decorated boudoir. Smyrna carpets cover the floor, the walls are draped with Persian hangings, relieved with Venetian mirrors. She sleeps on a soft leather bed. Lunch and dinners are sent in by the most expensive restaurants in Paris, the only contribution to her table supplied by the prison being a bottle of mineral water.

Mme. Caillaux is still elegantly gowned, and, although ordinary prisoners are not permitted to wear jewels, her diamond-studded wrist watch has not yet been removed.

PREPARING FOR WAR IN IRELAND

TO LAND MORE TROOPS

Conditions in Trouble Zone Causing Anxiety—Reports That Officers Have Tendered Resignations.

London, March 21.—Public agitation over the turbulent state of affairs in Ulster was reflected at Buckingham palace today when King George took a hand in the situation.

He summoned War Secretary Seely and the two were closeted for nearly an hour.

When the secretary returned to the war office it was announced that additional troops will be landed in the trouble zone immediately.

Today is a half holiday, and the extensive movement of troops has aroused the greatest excitement in England and Ireland.

The entire force of Ulster volunteers have been ordered to be prepared to mobilize when a signal of two rocket bombs is fired from the roof of Sir Edward Carson's headquarters in Belfast.

To offset any such move the British government today sent supplementary orders to General Paget, commanding the troops in Ireland, that he exercise every precaution to avoid provoking the opponents of home rule to an open outbreak.

These orders were issued after an extended conference lasting until after midnight between Premier Asquith, Winston Churchill, and War Secretary Seely.

On every hand today were evidences of the most extensive warlike preparations, however. General Paget was instructed to take such action as he believed necessary amply to safe-guard stores in the Irish barracks and prevent disorder, but the authorities admittedly realized that the slightest untoward act might fan the smoldering flames of Ulster into violent action.

The war office today claimed to have no knowledge of the reported wholesale resignations of officers of regiments in Ireland.

It was reported that an ultimatum was sent to the officers of the Curragh regiments. They were told it was reported, that if they were not prepared to serve in Ulster they might resign or be dismissed with the forfeiture of pension. One hundred officers are said to have resigned.

It is admitted that the situation at Belfast is of the greatest concern to the government. All Ulster volunteers have been ordered to be ready to arm and mobilize at a moment's notice. The authorities fear the possibility of a clash owing to the half holiday today and the commanders of the government troops have been ordered to avoid any show of antagonism in so far as possible in their vigilance toward maintaining order.

It was learned today that two destroyers which sailed from Dublin will land 150 soldiers at Carrick and Fergus Castle.

"War in Ulster," was the headline in some of the London newspapers. The extensive movement of troops has aroused the greatest excitement, although in the more conservative quarters the belief is expressed that the present acute situation may yet be believed.

Telegrams were received by Carson today confirming reports that many officers in South Ireland had refused to fight Ulster and resigned their commissions. Troops were moving all alone the Ulster border last night. All garrisons have been re-enforced. At Dublin forty tons of provisions were landed for the northern garrisons.

A British fleet is now in Bantry Bay, southwest Ireland, and orders for the sailing of the fleet for Kingstown Harbor were expected tody.

Dublin, March 21.—Field Marshal French arrived here today to investigate the wholesale retiring of officers because of their refusal to fight Ulster. He was told that most of the officers at least 100, of the Fourth Hussars stationed at Curragh, had resigned.

Field Marshal French is directing the movement of all troops in Ulster.

A large detachment of armed police left Dublin today for Ulster, and to meet the situation, which is expected in the courts in case of a conflict a number of special magistrates were sworn in a Dublin Castle. They will leave for Ulster immediately.

YOUNG WIFE VANISHES.

Virginia Woman, Clad in Wedding Gown, Departs in Baltimore.

Baltimore, March 21.—Robed in the dress which she wore when she was married at the home of her parents, in the timber land district of Northumberland county, Virginia, in November, 1911, Mrs. Robert Kilduff, 24 years old, 655 Gutman avenue, Waverly, abandoned her home about 4:30 o'clock Thursday morning, leaving behind her a note of farewell, in which she gave no clue to her future.

The note was found on a safe in the kitchen of her apartments and simply read:

"Good by. I am gone. Be a good mother to little Alice, Bertha. Be good, Rob. You have nothing to blame yourself for."

That was all, but in that note is thought to lie hidden the story of a brain-tortured woman who, despairing of salvation because of a terrible dream which she had more than a month ago, wandered forth in the darkness of a bitter wintry morning—perhaps in her death.

The dream occurred a month ago, while Mrs. Kilduff's mother, Mrs. Burgess, was at the house on a visit. The young woman took her mother into her confidence, telling her that she had had a dreadful vision in which she discovered that her soul was doomed.

The mother tried to rid the daughter of the fear, but without success.

From that time on Mrs. Kilduff underwent a complete change. For 24 years she had lived in the timberland of Northumberland county, carefree and light-hearted. Her first visit to any city was made in January, when she came to Baltimore to live. Her husband, fearing that his wife would become homesick, told her that at any time that she wanted to go back to Virginia he would be only too glad to go with her; that he wanted her to be happy.

Mrs. Kilduff said that she was glad to be in Baltimore; that she would be contented here. Indeed, she appeared to be so until the night of the dream. From that time on she became melancholy, often declaring that she had no hope for salvation, saying that no matter how hard she might try to be good her end was destined. She was a follower of no religion, but often in the last few weeks said she would like to know what to do to ward off her fate, but that she had despaired and could only await death as best she could.

MINE DRIVER BOY BURNED.

Waits to Yell Warnings Into all Breasts, Then Lies Down Till Fire Passes Over Him.

Shamokin, Pa., March 21.—A terrific fire is raging in the No. 12 vein, north tunnel workings at the Buck Ridge Colliery, operated by Irish Brothers, as the result of an explosion of gas in which a driver boy was burned while saving the lives of five miners.

John Soplasky was the driver; the men were at work in a tunnel when the explosion took place, and Soplasky was in a gangway when he noticed a ball of fire about 100 feet ahead, accompanied by a terrific roar.

Shouting warnings a number of times to the men in the several breasts, the boy leaped from a string of wagons into a ditch nad remained there till the fire passed over him.

Officials formed a resccuing party and bravely piercing the smoke-filled section, carried out the workmen, who had been overcome by the foul damp that followed the explosion.

LONG LABORS OF LEGISLATURE END

Following Usual Formalities Legislature of 1914 Adjourns.

ALL BILLS ENROLLED.

Governor Signs Many Bills, One for Civil and Police Justice for the City of Alexandria.

Richmond, March 21.—With none of the enthusiasm and tumult that marked the actual end of the 1914 General Assembly last Saturday night, the Legislature was formally dissolved yesterday afternoon with two Senators, the Lieutenant-Governor, four Delegates and the Speaker of the House present. Since Saturday the General Assembly has officially been in session under a resolution extending the sixty-day session six days. There has never been more than a bare handful of legislator on hand and, of course, no legislation has been attempted, but the Assembly in that way complied with the requirements of the Constitution.

The Constitution requires that bills passed by the General Assembly shall be enrolled and signed by the Lieutenant-Governor and the Speaker of the House "during the session." Before they can be signed the bills must be enrolled, which requires time and labor. Some 200 bills were rushed through the Legislature in the last three days of the active session, and in order that they might be signed "during the session," the session was nominally extended.

Only Senator Barman and Senator Cannon occupied seats in the Senate chamber yesterday afternoon at 6 o'clock when the Lieutenant-Governor called the last session of the Senate to order. Senate Librarian Jeter acted the part of clerk and read the titles of the billls enrolled and ready for signature, while the sergeant-at-arms rapped for quiet, and hungry reporter, commissioned to be in at the death, formed the audience.

There was no roll call in the House when Speaker Cox called its last session to order, and only Delegates Hobson, Gunn and Toney, of Richmond, and Oliver, of Fairfax, were there to make up the formal session. As soon as Speaker Cox signed all the enrolled bills a committee was sent to notify the Senate that the House had completed its labors. The session of 1914 was thereupon adjourned, and the "General Assembly" dissolved itself into a committee to wait upon Governor Stuart.

A number of bills received the signature of Governor Stuart yesterday, among them one providing civil and police justice for Newport News and Alexandria.

J. THOMPSON BROWN IN RACE.

Washington, March 21.— John Thompson Brown, of Bedford county, recently candidate for commissioner of Agriculture in Virginia, yesterday made personal application to the Secretary of the Treasury McAdo for the position of internal revenue collector for the Western District of the State He left with Secretary McAdoo a two-page typewritten letter explaining his candidacy. During the day he called on the members of the Virginia delegation, but did not request written enforsements from them. It is doubtful if these could be secured, as members of the delegation are already pledged to one or the other of the candidates.

Brown's only hope is to be named as a compromise candidate, and of this there is little probability. John M. Hart of Roanoke is to be nominated for this position either today or very shortly. It is rumored that the opposition to him by the senators is slowly diminishing, and that there may not be as strong opposition to his confirmation as was expected. This is chiefly due to the fact that the President is going to give senators the other five of the six appointments.

Odd Fellows of Alexandria and Vicinity Experience Delightful Evening

As had been anticipated, the celebration of the seventy-fifth anniversary of Potomac Lodge No. 29, I. O. O. F., last night was one of the most pleasant incidents in the history of that old and honored organization. The exercises were held in the hall on North Columbus street, and most of the members of the lodge and many of Sarepta Lodge, No. 46, as well as Odd Fellows from continguous places mingled in the happy reunion.

The comedy presented by the Dramatic Club was a decided success, all who participated acquitting themselves in a commendable manner, and the production was greatly enjoyed by all present.

During the evening appropriate remarks were made by Rev. Edgar Carpenter, rector of Grace Church, and Rev. Dr. J. Lee Allison, pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church.

Potomac Lodge has flourished during three generations, and is always being supplied with new blood, and has ever numbered among its members prominent and representative Alexandrians. Its sister lodge, Sarepta, although the junior organization, has also from its organization been a vigorous institution, and its roster contains many of our best citizens.

MEN'S MEETING.

The men's meeting will be addressed tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in the Westminster Building by Prof. W. E. Rollins, of the Episcopal Seminary. Dr. Rollins is a pleasing speaker and appeals to men. A large congregation is expected.

"CLIMBERS" TO RETURN HOME.

Manager Clark Griffith and the Washington Baseball Club who have been training in Charlottesville, will pass through Alexandria this evening en route to Washington. The team will leave Charlottesville at 3:10 p. m., and are due to arrive here about 7:26. A large number of local "fans" will proceed to the Union station to greet the "Climbers" and get a line on the players after their strenous workout at the University town.

POW WOW WOW.

Ho, ye pale face native, the American Indian Guards, are advancing upon us; and on Monday night, the 23rd, in Odd Fellow's Hall, on north Columbus street, our friend, the Hon. C. C. Carlin, who represents us in the halls of Congress, in the nation's Capitol, will in a short talk, welcome these young braves and their friends and start them off with their splendid fair, which promises to eclipse any thing of the kind which has taken place in our city for some time.

This evening will in every sense of the word be Red Men's evening, since over 200 of these chiefs are expected down from Washington, who will be met at the intersection of King and Payne streets, by Seminole and Osceola Tribes, of this city, and the local camp of American Indian Guards with their band from whence they will be escorted to the fair. Let all our pale faces turn out and welcome them.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The corporation court today confirmed the appointment of William Recker, as trustee if Immanuel Lutheran Church, in place of Frederick Didizoneit, removed from the city.

Sarah M. Baggett has sold to Joseph Hayman, the house occupied by Spinks & Patterson on the west side of Royal street, between King and Cameron.

Annual Meeting.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Washington Sanitary Improvement Company will be held at the office of James R. Caton, Esq., No. 111. South Fairfax street, April 7, Alexandria, Va., on Tuesday, April 7, 1914, at 2 P. M.

MR. SLEMP SUES FOR DIVORCE.

Wife of Virginia Congressman Charges Abandonment.

Bristol, Va., March 21.—Mrs. Loberta Barton Slemp yesterday filed a suit for an absolute divorce from her husband, Representative C. Bascom Slemp, of the Ninth district of Virginia. The ground set forth in the bill is desertion. The suit was filed in the circuit court of Wise county, which is the home of the representative.

The couple were married three years ago, and have been separated for about two years. Mrs. Slemp prior to her marriage was a Miss Barton, a member of a wealthy and socially prominent family of Louisiana, living near New Orleans. A child was born to them at Asheville, N. C., two years ago, but lived only a short time.

The bill contains no reference to alimony. Representative Slemp is reputed to be a millionaire coal land owner, having extensive interests in Virginia and Kentucky. Attorneys for Mrs. Slemp decline to say anything on the subject of alimony. Representative Slemp is 40 years old, and is serving his third term in the lower house. Upon the death of his father, the late Campbell Slemp, he was chosen to fill out the unexpired term and was renominated by the Republican party. He announced only a short time ago that he would not be a candidate for re-election.

Friends of Representative Slemp say that the marriage was unhappy, due to tempermental incompatibility, which resulted in a peaceful separation soon after the birth and death of the only child born to the union. Although he has retained Judge G. M. Fulton to represent him it is not believed that the suit will be strenuously contested.

It is rumored that Representative Slemp has been paying attentions to Mrs. Madeline Force Astor, widow of the late John Jacob Astor.

Representative C. Bascom Slemp, of Virginia, has not been in Virginia for about a week, according to his neighbors in the Burlington apartments, so the rumor that he will wed Mrs. Madeline Force Astor, could not be verified.

The rumor revived the story of the remarkable will of Col. Astor. By its provisions the young widow was given certain legacies and bequests on condition that she continue widowhood. At one time it was reported taht Mrs. Astor was seriously contemplating a legal test of these provisions to be free to do as she chose, but it has never been attempted.

Serious Charges.

Wytheville, Va., March 20.—Sheriff Davidson and Deputy Sheriff Slater returned yesterday morning, having in custody Walter Gordon, charged with attacking his two daughters, Alice, 13 years old, and Myrtle, aged 11. The alleged crime was brought to the attention of Commonwealth's Attorney S. B. Campbell, through a letter from a neighbor of Gordon's, and upon pedsonal investigation a warrant was issued. Gordon vigorously protests his innocence, but made an effort to slip his handcuffs and escape, while under guard last Wednesday.

NORFOLK POLICE JUSTICE.

Salary of $2,500 a Year to be Paid by The State.

Norfolk, Va., March 21.—The act providing for a straight salary of $2,500 a year instead of fees for the Norfolk police justice does not involve the constitutional questions which invaded the act under which the justice received that salary up to the spring of 1912, says State Senator John A. Lesner.

Question has been raised by Delegate Woodward as to possible constitutional defects in the 1914 act, but Senator Lesner stated that when the bill was before the Senate Finance committee State Auditor Moore assured the committee that he would pay the salary as provided for in the act.

It is provided in the act that the salary shall be paid out of the State treasury, said the senator. It, therefore, is not open to the objections raised by the auditor and sustained by the courts to the former act, which provided that the justice's salary should be paid out of funds derived from fines. The constitution requires the use of money from fines for special educational purposes.

PROBING MURDER MYSTERY.

Burns Report on Phagan Murder Murder Anticipated With Interest.

Atlanta, Ga., March 21.—William J. Burns, the detective, says that when his report on the death of little Mary Phagan, for whose murder Leo M. Frank, the young factory superintendent, has been convicted, has been made public, he believed it would be entirely satisfactory to every one. It will clear, he said, the mysterious disappearance of the pay envelope which Mary Phagan had just received from Leo M. Frank, and also that of her meshbag, which has never been found.

"When I took this case," said Burns, "it was considerably against my desire. I told the people who employed me I would insist on publishing my findings and that if they happened to be of a nature to hit Frank, they might not want me to publish them. They told me, however, that they did not care, that they believed Frank innocent, and were confident that my investigation would prove it; to go ahead and publish my report, and so I took the case with this agreement."

Burns anounces that he was investigating the recent activities here of a man who has been one of the central figures in several angles of the Mary Phagan murder mystery.

Recently an affidavit was published in which it was stated that this man had offered a $1,000 bribe to a witness in the case to testify to an infamous story against Frank. The woman declared that she had run him out of the house after he made this proposition.

"If all I hear about him is true, he ought to be in jail," said Burns today. "I imagine he has bene successful in escaping much of the punishment which he deserves not so much because he is clever, but because the authorities think he is not entirely responsible."

SNOW COVERS VIRGINIA.

Blizzard Prevailed Over State Thursday Night.

Richmond, March 21.—Creeping silently out of the west unheralded and unannounced, a typical blizzard broke over Virginia Thursday night and by noon all local weather bureau records for the month of March had been broken.

In Richmond the ground was covered with nine inches of snow. At 3 o'clock the sun burst through giving the snow its first let up since an early hour this morning. This is probably the heaviest snow fall ever recorded by the weather bureau in the same length of time in this city.

KILLS FAMILY AND HIMSELF.

Georgia Farmer Also Fires His Residence and Barns.

Oak Park, Ga., March 21.—J. A. Eubanks, a farmer living near this place, early yesterday killed his wife and two daughters as they slept, set fire to his home and several other farm buildigs and then fired a bullet through his forehead, causing his death several hours later.

Mrs. Eubank's head was almost severed from her body with an axe. The two children, one aged 4, the other 6 months old, were killed with a knife.

After slaying his family and firing the buildings on his premises Eubanks awakened a neighbor, told him what he had done and then shot himself.

Meanwhile the blaze consumed Eubanks' barn and a number of tenant houses. The residence was saved.

Eubanks, 30 years old, is believed to have been mentally deranged.

LOST BOY WAS IN ELMIRA.

Elmira, N. Y., March 21.—Warren McCarrick, the Philadelphia boy, who disappeared from Philadelphia, was without doubt, in this city Wednesday in the company of a man and a woman. The child was taken to a barber shop and his golden hair cut.

The barber later saw the boy's picture and is positive that he is the missing boy. The description of the lad is identical with that sent out from Philadelphia. Chief of Police Finnell communicated with the Philadelphia police and is positive that the boy is the one they are looking for.

The man and woman went west on the Lackawanna train Wednesday afternoon, buying tickets for Buffalo. Buffalo police have been notified.

The man and woman, who had the kidnapped boy here, were dark Italians who spoke only broken English.

They asked the barber to cut the boy's hair so he would look like a girl. The boy cried bitterly and was roughly handled by the man who had taken him to the barber shop. The man told the barber that the boy gave him lots of trouble. The child was frightened and did not utter a word in the barber shop.

Buffalo, March 21.—Chief of Police Regan stated yesterady that no trace of Warren McCarrick, the missing Philadelphia boy, had been found in this city.

J-M ASBESTOS SHINGLES
THE ROOF THAT LASTS FOR YEARS.

The durability and water-proof qualities of your roof, together with its ability to withstand high winds when properly applied, are very important factors in every home or other building.

The J-M Asbestos Shingles are fire proof, weather proof and, when properly applied, will withstand the action of the elements and prove a satisfactory roof covering indefinitely.

They are made by moulding pure asbestos fibres and Portland cement into a solid, compact mass under hydraulic pressure.

They never require paint.

They are used in a great many of the finest buildings being constructed today all over the world.

THE CHANGE IN A CENTURY.

The century of history shows many reversals of practice One of the most striking of these reversals is now attracting attention in Great Britain. At the close of the Revolutionary war by which the American colonies attained their independence the British government found its prisons filled to overflowing and the maintenance of the criminal class a heavy public burden.

At the same time the government possessed several colonies which needed settlers, but which did not tempt British subjects to undertake their settlement. A change in the penal laws were made by which men were sentenced to transportation, some for a term of years and some for life Shiploads of malefactors were sent out to Botany Bay, Australia, where a penal colony was established on the present site of the City of Sydney Tasmania was given a penal colony at Hobart's Town and others were established in the same way. As these prison colonies became crowded prisoners were released on good behaviour with certificates showing their right to liberty. The ticket-of-leave men became the first active colonizers.

In 1853 another reform was made in the criminal code by which troublesome citizens of Great Britain were given their choice of seeking a home in the distant colonies or going to prison. These were deported at the expense of government to whatever colony they might designate and quite a number chose South Africa for their future homes. Today the process is reversed. Nine residents of South Africa who were concerned in the recent strike on the Rand were sentenced to banishment for life, and in the latter part of February they arrived in London where they were met by thousands of enthusiastic sympathizers and feted publicly at the London Opera House. Members of the Parliament, the president of the London Trades council and many citizens of national reputation occupied seats on the stage and participated in the welcome.

These men were banished from South Africa for life by courts which favor the rich corporations and oppose labor organizations that demand a higher scale of wages and a general betterment of the living conditions for white laborers. The British trade union men insist that the home government shall make it possible for these banished men to return to South Africa in honor. It is a striking illustration of the changes that can take place in a century of time.

Miss Pattie Miller, of Huntington W. Va., was seriously hurt in an automobile accident near Ashland Va.

MANY EXCUSES TO AVOID WORK.

It has been observed that pauperism is almost invarably a voluntary condition. Many persons prefer to be beggars, and when once such specimens of the human race break the ice, they never prove of much use throughout the remafnder of their existence.

Many instances could be cited in Alexandria to prove this assertion. Good people of this city, animated by the best motives, innocently contribute to make others improvident, the latter presuming on the thoughtfulness of those who spend much of their time investigating the conditions of people who make but little exertion towards helping themselves. Dickens in "Bleak House" in describing the worthless brickmaker and Mrs. Hardiggle's visit to the idler's home is not overdrawn.

The Administrative Board of Richmond yesterday announced that every man out of work would be given employment by the street cleaning superintendent or by the Building Inspector shoveling snow. They were to be paid fifteen cents an hour.

Half a dozen men usually call at the headquarters of the Administrative Board every day and ask for work. When they appeared yesterday they said their wives and children were hungry and had nothing to eat. They said they would do any kind of work.

They were at once turned over to the Building Inspector, who gave them shovels and told them to get busy. Not a one went to work. One had to go home to change his clothes; he did not come back. Another had to meet a man up the street; he disappeared. Another had been told by his doctor not to walk in the snow; he vanished. Still another could not go to work until tomorrow; he hurried off. The Building Inspector was left with six shovels.

SORROWFUL PARTING.

(Communicated.)

In a dreadful snowstorms, such as March is capable of, the mortal of young Albert Metzger was carried from the hearst to the tomb by eight of his friends yesterday. After an impressive service at St. Mary's Church, where beautiful music befitting the occasion was rendered, the distressed family and friends started to the cemetery to give to mother earth that which belonged to her. A good boy—exceptionally so—one who honored his father and mother—was Albert Metzger—and his death so young is a shock to those who knew him. He was upright in every particular, and commanded the respect of his employer and others with whom he had business. But he is no more—the icy winds of dying winter nor the bracing temperature of early spring, or the torrid heats of summer will not disturb his slumbers—only he awaits the call of the Heavenly bugle, when he will appear to receive his reward—

He ceased, and casting all around,
One lingering look of love;
His spirit burst the chords of love
And winged its flight above.
And thus young Albert passed away
As a flower at morning born,
That blooms on earth but a fleeting day
Nor sees the morrow's dawn.

Ye stricken ones who linger still
This side the blissful shore;
Your Albert, free from every ill,
Will never sorrow more.
Then let me sweep a cheerful strain
Across this world of ours
And bid you hope to meet again
Your son in a land of flowers.

—GEO. H. HAYDEN, Jr.

REWICKING Made Easy

EASY wicking is only one of the many improvements that make the new Perfection Oil Heater (Triangle trade mark) superior to any oil heater ever made before.

Wick and carrier are in one. Just turn up the old wick, slip it out and drop another in place.

PERFECTION SMOKELESS OIL HEATER

The shape of the font, wide and shallow, allows the oil to pass readily up the wick and insures an even, glowing heat even when the font is almost empty. The font holds more than a gallon of oil and an indicator shows the amount of fuel left at a glance.

There is no smoke or smell with a Perfection. The automatic-locking flame-spreader prevents smoking. No gallery to unscrew, or catch oil and dust.

Made with vitreous blue enamel or plain steel drums. Ornamental, inexpensive, lasts for years. Easily cleaned and moved about.

HER FRIEND'S GOOD ADVICE

The Results Made This Newburg Lady Glad She Followed Suggestion.

Newburg, Ala.—"For more than a year," writes Myrtle Cothrum, of this place, "I suffered with terrible pains in my back and head. I had a sallow complexion, and my face was covered with pimples. Our family doctor only gave me temporary relief.

A friend of mine advised me to try Cardui, so I began taking it at once, and with the best results, for I was cured after taking two bottles. My mother and my aunt have also used Cardui and were greatly benefited.

Cardui is a purely vegetable, perfectly harmless, tonic remedy for women, and will benefit young and old.

Cardui has helped a million women back to health and strength.

Have you tried it? If not, please do. It may be just what you need.

TRUSTEE'S SALE OF AN UNDIVIDED ONE-HALF INTEREST OF A CERTAIN FARM IN THE COUNTY OF ALEXANDRIA, STATE OF VIRGINIA, LOCATED NEAR CLARENDON.

By virtue of a certain deed of trust recorded in Deed Book 136, page 150, of the Land Records of the County of Alexandria, State of Virginia, default having been made in the payment of the debt secured thereby, the undersigned trustees will offer for sale at public auction in front of the premises at 5 o'clock P. M., on an undivided one-half interest in the following property situated in the county of Alexandria, in the State of Virginia, containing 25.536 acres of land described as follows:

Beginning at a stone mentioned in the plat of survey made by George E. Garrett, County Surveyor, February 15, 1905, and filed in Court in the suit of Birch et al., vs. Alexander et al., in the Circuit court of Alexandria County, in the State of Virginia, and also recorded in the Land Records of said County, said stone being described in plat survey as "Stone—at angle in Hunter & Taylor B'd'y'l" and running thence southwestwardly 1379.08 feet to the point "S" said "S" being described in said plat of survey as "Stone—corner as claimed by Birch;" thence running northwestwardly 816.14 feet to the point described in said plat of survey as "E"; running thence 76 degrees 35 1-2 minutes East, 1420.18 feet; and running thence South 15 degrees 15 minutes East, 775.5 feet to the point of beginning, being the area marked "D" on said plat of survey.

This interest will be sold subject to an existing indebtedness of five thousand ($5,000) dollars, secured by a first deed of trust upon said property. Terms of sale, all cash. The terms of sale must be complied with in 30 days after the day of sale, otherwise the said undivided interest will be resold at the risk and cost of the defaulting purchaser, after ten day's re-advertisement thereof. A deposit of two hundred and fifty ($250) dollars will be required at the time of sale. Taxes and all other charges against the property will be adjusted to the date of the transfer of the title to the purchaser, the title to be good or otherwise the sale will be declared off, and the deposit refunded to the purchaser. All costs of conveyancing, Notary fees, and other costs attending the transfer of the title shall be borne by the purchaser.

NEWS OF THE DAY

The impeachment of the Japanese cabinet on account of the recent naval scandals in connection with the receipt of illicit commissions by naval officers, was asked yesterday in an address to the throne, inaugurated in the chamber of deputies by the opposition parties The address declared that "the scandals are a stain on the newly begun reign of the emperor, and are harmful to the prestige of Japanese navy, both at home and abroad."

Clarence P. Rowzee is guilty of murder in the second degree by the verdict of the jury in Criminal Court No. 1, in Washington, before which he was tried for the killing on November 9 last of Joseph D. Rogerson, proprietor of a restaurant at 1405 New York Avenue. The minimum penalty for the crime is twenty years in the penitentiary. Rowzee's counsel immediately gave notice that a motion for a new trial will be made.

The sensation of the first production of a dramatization of Pierre Louys' "Aphrodite," at the Reinassance Theatre, Paris, this week, was the appearance upon the stage of a totally nude woman in the final act. Mle .Dorny went through the difficult scene so gracefully, and with such good taste, that spectators applauded heartily. The applause lasted after the fall of the curtain, but after it had raised again the actress made the mistake of stepping forward to receive the plaudits still naked. The mood of the spectators changed instantly. There was an outburst of hissing and murmuring, many people standing up until Mlle. Cora Laparcerie, who takes a leading part in the piece threw a veil over the shoulders of the nude actress, whereupon the loud applause was resumed.

Instead of appearing to be married to Miss Carrie Schabbell Thursday night, in Los Angeles, Cal., Harry D. Schultz sent the wedding ring with a note announcing that he was about to commit suicide. A few minutes later he was found lying on the floor of his apartment with a bullet through his breast. He died yesterday. His note to the prospective bride declared that she 'was to good for a felow like me" and expressed the hope that they would meet in the hereafter. "I haven't the heart to marry you, or face you," he wrote. Schultz came from Waynesboro, Pa., where his mother, Mrs. Lester Law, lives.

Mrs. James Crasher, of Freedom Plains, Duchess county, N. Y., is minus a kitchen range, and wonders why she escaped without serious injury in a peculiar accident yesterday. A pumpkin she was thawing out in the oven blew up and wrecked the stove, besides shattering every window pane in the kitchen. Steam which formed inside the pumpkin expanded so that the explosion followed. Mrs. Crasher brought the pumpkin from the barn with visions of delicious pies, but left it in the woodshed where it froze.

The first day of spring was heralded by fierce northwesterly gales and a torrential rain in Paris. Enormous damage resulted in Paris and the north of France. A large scaffolding was blown down in the Boulevard des Italiens onto the terrace of a cafe. Seven persons were injured. One of the beams demolished a passing taxicab, but the occupant, the Comtesse Isaure de Mirambon, and the chauffeur escaped with slight injuries. At the Villacoublay military aviation field the damage amounted to $70,000. Four aeroplanes were wrecked.

An inquiry into the official amount of Daniel Thew Wright, associate justice of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, seems to be assured as a result of a motion made in the House yesterday by Representative Park, of Georgia. Mr. Park impeached Judge Wright, and he will follow this up by presenting a resolution directing the committee on judiciary to make an investigation of charges preferred against the jurist.

As a result of four bullet wounds inflicted by her son-in-law, Herman Kabansky, who yesterday morning shot her, his wife, his brother-in-law, and attempted to kill Policeman T. L. Edwards, Mrs. Lena Raboy, forty-five, of 1816 Seventh street northwest, Washington, died at Emergency Hospital last night. Held on a charge of assault, Kabansky now faces a charge of murder. He admits the shooting and says he is sorry he did not succeed in killing all of them.

The terrific pounding of the Atlantic's waves broke in two of the steamer City of Sydney, which went ashore on the Sambro Ledge, near Halifax, N. S., on Tuesday. All on board and part of her cargo were saved.

When you buy Foley's Honey and Tar Compound because just a few doses stop the cough and heals the cold, one bottle lasts a long time, and the last dose is as good as the first. Mrs. SSS 20 Van Buren St., Kingston, N .Y., says: "Father had lagrippe and his cough was something terrible and he could not sleep. Foley's Honey and Tar not only stopped his coughing, but it brought back my voice to me after a severe case of bronchitis and laryngitis." E. S. Leadbeater & Sons.

Plain Truth That's Worth Money.

Using Foley's Honey and Tar for a cough and cold is just practical common sense. It is exactly made to stop a cough and check a cold and it prevents lagrippe, bronchitis or pneumonia. F. F. I recommend it gladly." Refuse substitutes. Sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons.

FOR DOG'S LIFE OR DIVORCE.

Aggrieved Wife Says Hubby Treats Brutes Best.

Pittsburgh, March 21.—Giving as the principal reason that her husband supported valuable dogs in luxury, while she was compelled to "beg for the crumbs," Mrs. Rose L. Reninger, wife of William F. Reninger entered suit for divorce in court here today. The suit followed the arrest of Reninger on charges of desertion.

Reninger and his wife have been married twice, the husband having secured a divorce from his wife and later remarried her.

Mrs. Reninger among other allegations says that she furnished their home with her own money, while her husband bought guns and other sporting goods. "He kept two dogs in luxury, but he wouldn't keep me," is her plaint.

Reninger in his answer accuses his wife of having remarried him to prevent his marriage with a wealthy widow. He denied keeping the two dogs in luxury, although admitting he had two that were entitled to all the care he could give them.

IN CHANCERY.

This cause coming on to be heard this 16th day of March, 1914, upon the application of the complainant, stating specifically the last known place of abode of the defendant, the Court on this 16th day of March, 1914, doth grant the following order of publication:

The object of this suit is to obtain for the complainant a divorce from the bonds of matrimony from the defendant, on the ground of wilful desertion and abandonment. An affidavit having been made and filed that the defendant, Ethel Howard, has not been found within the jurisdiction of the State of Virginia, and that she is a non-resident of said State, it is ordered that she do appear here within fifteen days after the publication of this order and do what is necessary to protect her interests in this suit.

And it is further ordered that a copy of this order of publication be published once a week for 4 successive weeks in the Alexandria Gazette, a newspaper published in the City of Alexandria, Virginia; that a copy be posted at the front door of the court house of the said city, on or before the next succeeding rule day after this order is entered, and that a copy of the said order of publication shall be sent by registered mail by the clerk of this Court, addressed to the said non-resident defendant, at No. 310 Seaton Place, Northeast, Washington, D. C., her last known place of abode.

TARRED AND WHIPPED.

Maryland Youth Roughly Handled for Alleged Derogatory Remarks.

St. Helena, Md., March 21.—Horsewhipped, covered with tar, and otherwise roughly handled by seven assailants, one of them a woman, who charged him with making derogatory remarks about a 13-year-old girl, Arthur Bryan, aged 17, had an exciting experience Thursday night in the shadow of the Protestant Episcopal Church.

The attack and its consequences were of a nature so sensational that there was a display of much feeling among people here, and warrants were secured for the arrest of the persons who according to Bryan's story, assaulted him. These are William Hoare, his wife his three sons—Harold, Emmett, and William J.—and George Murphy and John Hughes, all of St. Helena.

According to young Bryan, he was passing the church on his way to a party, when he was met by John Hughes, who told him Mrs. Hoare wished to see him behind the church. He went there and was immediately seized by six of the persons named. Hughes joining the party at the same time.

While two of the Hoare boys held him, shaking him roughly, the father and mother, Bryan says, charged him with circulating injurious reports concerning their daughter, Emma. Bryan was declaring his innocence of this, when his hat was knocked from his head, and, firmly grasped by his captors, he was dragged to where a bucket of steaming tar was standing, Mrs. Hoare beating him with the horsewhip all the while.

Hot tar was daubed all over his clothing, and then on his face and hair, he says, until the pain caused him to lose consciousness. When he recovered consciousness he was in the home of Mrs. McShane, on Baltimore street. How he got there he did not know. His parents had been summoned, however, and to these he told his story.

Mrs. Hoare, according to the police, admitted the facts substantially as stated by Bryan, saying that she only struck the boy after he had refused to enter the church and swear what she claimed he said about her daughter was not true.

The accused persons will have a hearing in the Canton police court today.

KAISER STIRS CATHOLICS.

Alleged Letter From Him Said to Express Hostile Views.

Berlin, March 21.—An alleged letter from Emperor William in which he is said to have expressed strong anti-Catholic views is attracting much attention in the press.

The leter is understood to have been written by his Majesty to the Landgravine of Hesse, who was a Princess of Prussia and was converted to the Catholic faith on October 9, 1901.

The Volksfreund of Aix-la-Chapelle, a Catholic newspaper, declares the letter contains the phrase:

"I hate the religion which you have adopted."

The letter is said to have been found among the papers of the late Cardinal Kopp.

EARTH SWALLOWS MINERS.

Shanty Which They Occupied May Have Dropped 500 Feet.

Pottsville, Pa., March 21. — The earth opened and swallowed two miners and a work shanty on the mountain side at the Kehley Run colliery at Shenandoah yesterday, although large forces of men have been put to work on both sides of the mines and at the surface, no trace of men or building can be found.

They may have been dropped a distance of 500 feet or any portion of it, and it may require weeks to learn their fate.

A third man working near the shanty at the time saved himself by grasping a steampipe and hanging on until help arrived.

VIRGINIA WOMEN WILL LEAD.

Col. Mosby's Daughter to Head Suffragette Parade.

A unique feature of the big suffrage procession in Washington on May 9, will be a division of Virginia woman cavalry. This will be marshalled by Mrs. Stuart Moseby Coleman of Virginia, daughter of Col. John B. Moseby.

THE CASE OF HUFF.

Alleged Assault Was Outcome of Loyalty to the Government.

Washington, March 21.—Before acting upon the case of Lieut. Commander Charles P. Huff, convicted by a court-martial at Norfolk, Va., of conduct unbecoming an officer and a gentleman, in striking J. Philip Kiesecker, an employe of the Newport News Shipbuilding and Dry-dock Company, Secretary of the Navy Daniels will investigate charges made that Huff's troubles really grew out of his loyalty to the United States government.

The charge is made by friends of Huff that the shipbuilding company wished in some way to "reach" Huff because, as ordnance officer of the new battleship Texas, he was holding up the acceptance of the new vessel by the government owning to alleged faulty work upon the part of the company. This delay, and the labor necessary to make the work on the Texas conform to the navy's requirements, as enforced by Lieut. Commander Huff, was said to have been costing the company about $3,000 a day.

Kiesecker, it is alleged by friends of the officer, was detailed by the company to get in the good graces of Lieut. Commander Huff, in order that he might be brought to alter his course which was working hardship, though no injustice, upon the company.

This, it is said, accounts for the extravagant attentions paid the officer and his wife by Kiesecker, resentment of which by Huff led to their fight last month which brought on the court-martial.

Huff testified that he resorted to every possible means, short of insult or bolws, to show to Kiesecker that he had no desire for his company or his attentions and wished to have no associations with him. It was finally necessary, Huff declared, to knock down the civilian.

Before Lieut. Commander Huff was tried, a brother officer laid this phase of the case before Secretary Daniels, and urged that as Huff was really a victim of his own loyalty to the government, he ought not to be subjected to a trial by a court-martial. Mr. Daniels held that it should be left to the court to bring out all important facts.

Owing to the rules of naval court-martial, however, this matter did not come before the court, but counsel for Huff referred to this phase of the matter. The court, though sentencing Huff to the loss of five numbers and a public reprimand, recommended that Secretary Daniels use his clemency. Commander Huff has an excellent record and several times has been most highly commended.

BULLET FLIES FROM CIGAR.

Cartridge in Man's Smoking Outfit Endangers Several.

West Chester, Pa., March 21.—While George Sellers, of Gap, Lancaster county, was smoking a cigar in a trolley car on his way to West Chester, a cartridge in the cigar exploded, and Sellers was somewhat lacerated on the face.

The bullet from the cartridge flew through the car and was imbedded in the woodwork. It passed close to the head of Deputy Controller Vinton Phillips, who was sitting near Sellers.

PLACED UNDER $25,000 BOND.

Cashier of Goldsboro Bank Alleged to Be Short in Accounts.

Charlotte, N. C., March 21.—H. C. Smith, alleged to have been short over $75,000 in his accounts as cashier of the Goldsboro Savings and Trust Company, and an employe of the National Bank, of that city, was yesterday afternoon arrested and placed under a $25,000 bond, which he has so far failed to get signed, according to a special from Goldsboro, last night.

Duke Acquitted of Manslaughter.

Seattle, March 21.—Lawrence Duke, nephew of James B. Duke, the North Carolina tobacco manufacturer, was found not guilty yesterday of the charge of manslaughter preferred after his automobile ran down and killed Henry N Farr, a saloon keeper, on the county road south of Seattle, October 15, last.

The state alleged that Duke was intoxicated, and handled his car recklessly.

IN THE UNITED STATES COURT.

For the Eastern District of Virginia.

In the matter of Wm. M. Powell, Bankrupt. No. 107 in Bankruptcy.

Petition For Discharge.

To the Hon. Edmund Waddill, Jr., Judge of the District Court for the Eastern District of Virginia.

William M. Powell, formerly of Alexandria County, now of Spotsylvania County, State of Virginia, in said District, respectfully represents:

That on the 21st day of June, 1913, last past, he was duly adjudged bankrupt under the Acts of Congress relating to bankruptcy; that he has duly surrendered all his property, and rights of property, and has fully complied with all the requirements of said Acts and of the orders of the Court touching his bankruptcy.

Wherefore he prays that he may be decreed by the Court to have a full discharge from al debts provable against his estate under said bankrupt acts, except such debts as are excepted by law from such discharge.

WILLIAM M. POWELL,
Bankrupt.

Order of Notice Thereon.

On this 14th day of March, A. D., 1914, on reading the petition for discharge of the bankrupt, it is Ordered by the Court, that a hearing be had upon the same on the 18th day of April, A. D., 1914, before said Court of Alexandria in said district at 12 o'clock noon; and that notice thereof be published in Alexandria Gazette, a newspaper printed in said District, and that all known creditors and other persons in interest may appear at the said time and place, and show cause, if any they have, why the prayer of the said petitioner should not be granted.

And it is further ordered by the Court, that the Clerk shall send by mail to all known creditors copies of said petition and this order, addressed to them at their places of residence as stated.

EDMUND WADDILL, Jr.,
U. S. District Judge.

Winter's Chills Breed Kidney Ills

Chilly, damp, changing weather is hard on the kidneys. Even more irritating are colds, grip, pneumonia, tonsilits, quinsy and other infections. The kidneys get congested and inflamed, and this causes backache and disordered kidney action. Though serious in its last stages, kidney disease is not hard to conquer if a good remedy is used when the first signs of kidney trouble are noticed.

Spring is Breaking; Backs are Aching

Backache is often the first sign of some form of kidney disease that has been coming on for months. Look for the other signs;—lame back, sharp pains when stooping or lifting, dizzy spells, nervousness or despondency, with irregular painful or distressing action of the kidneys if these signs exist, decide that the kidneys need attention, ere the trouble turns to gravel, dropsy or Bright's disease.

Alexandria People Testify

Alexandria Cases Self-Told

Wilkes St.

Mrs. Martha L. Byrne, 209 Wilkes street, Alexandria, Va., says: "I never fail to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills after all they have done for me, and you may continue using the endorsement I gave some years ago. I take this remedy every once in a while and it keeps me in good health. I was suffering severely from backache. My kidneys were badly disordered and I felt all run down. I was helped so much by the first box of Doan's Kidney Pills that I kept on taking them until I was well."

King St.

H. C. Smith, tailor, 919 King St., Alexandria, says: "I hope my statement will be the means of getting other sufferers to use Doan's Kidney Pills and be cured as I was. I couldn't begin to tell the agony I endured from my back. I didn't find anything that would cure me until I used Doan's Kidney Pills. They made me well in less than a month, and during the past two years I have had no trouble. The endorsement I gave at the time the cure was made still holds good."

Duke St.

Mrs. C. V. Gardner, 1211 Duke St., Alexandria, says: "The cure Doan's Kidney Pills made for me some years ago has been permanent and I haven't needed anything for my kidneys since. I had not suffered very long before I took Doan's Kidney Pills and didn't really know what was the matter, but I got real bad with weakness and lameness through my back. For a few days I couldn't do my housework. I had to lie down most of the time and it was the same when I went to bed at night. I finally got a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at Leadbeater & Sons drug store, and they cured me."

Queen st.

J. T. Lanigey, 513 Queen St., Alexandria, says: "I had a bad back, and I think the whole trouble was caused by a strain. I could not stoop, and when I got up in the morning, I could hardly move. I noticed sediment in the kidney secretions. The many good reports I heard of of Doan's Kidney Pills lead me to get a box at Leadbeater & Co.'s drug store. They fixed me up in fine shape. During the past few years since Doan's Kidney Pills cured me of kidney complaint, I have had no trouble. I repeat the praise I have previously given this remedy"

N. Pitt st.

Mrs. M.E. Lash, 216 N. Pitt St., Alexandria, says: "About a year ago I noticed that my kidneys were not doing their work as they should. The kidney secretions caused my annoyance. My back was very weak and I could hardly stoop. I tried remedy after remedy, but nothing did me good until I used Doan's Kidney Pills. They completely cured me. And since then I have had no further trouble. You may continue using the endorsement I gave at the time the cure was made."

Prince st.

Mrs. J. B. Briscoe, 115 Prince St., Alexandria, says: "A few years ago I allowed my name to be used publicly telling of the great amount of good Doan's Kidney Pills had done, and at this time my opinion of the remedy is not changed. I recommend it more strongly than before. My back was lame and sore and for five years, I just dreaded my housework on that account. After I took Doan's Kidney Pills, I felt a great deal better in every way."
